Southern Cross University

PHAR2001

Introductory Pharmacology

Unit Outline

Term 5, 2026

scu.edu.au

CRICOS Provider: 01241G

Contents

About this unit
Modules
Unit learning outcomes
Learning resources
Prescribed texts and materials
Estimated workload
Teaching and learning arrangements
Assessment
Assessment overview

About this unit

Provides students with knowledge of pharmacological agents and their current use in the prevention and treatment of disease and with foundational knowledge of the principles of safe medication management.

Modules

1. Pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics, and medications of the gastrointestinal system
2. Medications of the autonomic nervous system and respiratory system
3. Medications that treat endocrine disorders
4. Cardiovascular and renal system pharmacology
5. Analgesics and psychotropic medications
6. Agents with selective toxicity: Antibiotics, antifungal agents, antiviral agents and chemotherapeutic anticancer agents

Unit learning outcomes

As a graduate of Southern Cross University, you will have developed skills, values and attitudes that are essential for gaining employment and advancing lifelong learning. The University refers to these as graduate attributes.

Learning outcomes for this unit
1. explain the main principles of pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics
2. describe the mechanism of action, pharmacological effects, therapeutic uses, contraindications, safety issues and side effects of major drug classes and commonly used therapeutic agents
3. discuss drug toxicity and interactions between drugs using specific examples of drugs and considering individual variability of drug response
4. investigate and evaluate medications in case-based contexts and accurately communicate the findings in a timely manner

Learning resources

Prescribed texts and materials

There are no prescribed texts or materials for this unit.

Teaching and learning arrangements

Estimated workload

Scheduled hours	Personal study	Total
18	132	150

Scheduled Study Hours

Your scheduled study hours are allocated as follows (please refer only to the Teaching and Learning arrangements relevant to the location you are enrolled in for this unit):

Online

Teaching method	Duration	Frequency	Delivery Mode
Tutorial	2 hours	Weekly	Online
Workshop	1 hour	Weekly	Online

Assessment

Assessment overview

1. To pass the unit, students must attempt and submit all assessment tasks and obtain at least 50% of the overall assessment marks for the unit.
2. Attendance: We recognise the relationship between attendance, participation, student success and retention. Any engagement opportunity missed, regardless of the reason, can decrease the opportunity for learning. It is expected that students will attend and participate in all scheduled classes and activities for this unit. In the event of a missed session, it is the student's responsibility to catch up on content.

Assessment	Group/ individual	Learning outcomes	Grading indicator	Weight	Length/ duration	Week Due
1. Quiz	INDIV	1,2	Graded	20%	90 minutes	2
2. Workbook	INDIV	2,3,4	Graded	30%	Refer to details in Blackboard	5
3. Case study	INDIV	1,2,3,4	Graded	50%	Refer to details in Blackboard	6